First Business Bank-Milwaukee announced the election of Timothy Wallen to its board of directors. Wallen is principal and chief executive officer of NAI MLG Commercial. First Business Bank-Milwaukee is part of Madison-based First Business Financial Services Inc., which also includes First Business Bank-Madison, First Business Trust & Investments, First Business Leasing and First Business Capital Corp.

"Tim is a respected, high profile member of the business community and possesses tremendous knowledge of the local real estate market. We are very excited that Tim is joining our board," said Terry Taylor, president and CEO of First Business Bank-Milwaukee.

Wallen joined NAI MLG Commercial in 1989 as chief financial officer and was promoted to CEO in 2000. Prior to joining MLG, Wallen was a tax manager with Price Waterhouse in San Francisco, where he specialized in income tax planning for partnerships and corporations in the real estate industry. In 1989, he transferred to the company's Milwaukee office, where he was promoted to the position of manager. Wallen is a certified public accountant.
